

Diwan to Offer a Taste of Summer for Summerlicious

Featuring mouth-watering starters, freshly-grilled mains, and savoury desserts

June 13, 2016 – Diwan at Aga Khan Museum, headed by Master Chef Mark McEwan, is pleased to announce its participation in Toronto's favourite summer dining event, Summerlicious. Between July 8 and 24, diners can enjoy items from a $28 three-course prix fixe lunch menu. Reservations are available beginning June 23 via opentable.com or by calling Diwan at 416.646.4670.

Master Chef Mark McEwan offers a sizzling Summerlicious menu of appetizers, mains, and sumptuous desserts inspired by the best of Indian, Middle-Eastern, and African cuisines. Prepared with local and international ingredients, the menu celebrates the many textures and flavours of traditional cuisine with unexpected twists on spicy and savoury dishes:

- Appetizers include crisp onion bhaji sweetened with tangy tamarind chutney, and smoked eggplant served with minted salad.
- Mains include roasted cauliflower steaks and beef kofta kebabs topped with shirazi salsa.
- Desserts include buttermilk panna cotta with aromatic rosewater compote.

The Summerlicious menu pairs perfectly with a featured range of chilled mocktails and cocktails.

Diners can enjoy the Summerlicious menu on Diwan's newly-opened patio or in the elegant Damascus dining room 11:30 am–2:30 pm, Tuesday to Sunday. During the summer, Diwan will continue to offer a wide-ranging lunch menu and a special BBQ patio menu, celebrating summer at its best.
