

AGA KHAN MUSEUM

AGA KHAN MUSEUM DIGITAL PROGRAMS

VIRTUAL COURSES AND WORKSHOPS

The Art of Bookmaking

This course celebrates the centuries-old art of bookmaking. Discover the secrets of making works on paper with this four-part course led by Aga Khan Museum Assistant Curator Bitva Pourvash.

Cities of the Islamic World: Syria

Quench your thirst for travel and adventure with an extraordinary webinar series showcasing the splendour in some of the most storied cities in the Muslim World.

Islamic Art 101

Indulge your curiosity with a fascinating free self-paced online course on the basics of Islamic art.

Islamic Architecture, Past to Present

Build up your appreciation of the beauty and far-reaching influence of architectural wonders from across the Muslim world.

Word and Image in Islamic Art

Presented by Museum Curator Dr. Michael Chagnon, this interactive course immerses students in spellbinding works of art from the Aga Khan Museum and peer institutions. Explore the ways in which artists from the inception of Islam in the 7th century to the present day navigated the realms of the visual and the verbal.

PODCAST

This Being Human

Extraordinary stories from creative thinkers whose lives, ideas, and art have been shaped by Muslim culture.

DOCUMENTARY

Making an Exhibition

Journey behind-the-scenes at the Aga Khan Museum in the Making an Exhibition documentary mini-series as the team prepares to open Image? The Power of the Visual.

COLLECTION ACCESS AND AUDIO GUIDE

COLLECTIONS

FILTER

Aga Khan Museum Digital Collection

The Museum's Permanent Collection of over 1000 objects includes rare masterpieces that reflect a broad range of artistic styles and materials.

Audio Guide: Diversity

This audio guide has been designed to highlight objects that illustrate how such diversity has fundamentally shaped the arts of the Islamic world.

HANGING LAMP
Accession Number: AH0645
Place: Near East, probably Syrian region
Dimensions: 14.7 cm
Date: 10th to 12th Century
Materials and Technique: glass, light aquamarine and dark blue, inclusions and numerous bubbles, blown, beaded, applied, worked on the point
This object is included in the following tour(s):
Step #1 of Audio Guide: Diversity
Click below to listen
▶ 0:00 / 0:34
Next up in the Diversity Tour:

BOWL WITH A BIRD HOLDING A LEAF IN ITS BEAK
Accession Number: AH0474
Place: Iran, Isfahan
Dimensions: 6 x 23.5 cm
Date: 10th century
Materials and Technique: earthenware, with lustre painting on an opaque white glaze (lustre ware)
This object is included in the following tour(s):
Object # of Beltway \(Boost\)
Step #1 of Audio Guide: Creativity
Click below to listen (Audio Guide introduction to Creativity) & AH0474
▶ 0:00 / 4:19

BOWL
Accession Number: AH0544
Place: Iran, Nishapur
Dimensions: 24.9 cm
Date: 10th century
Materials and Technique: earthenware, slip-painted and glazed
This object is included in the following tour(s):
Step #1 of Audio Guide: Interconnectedness
Click below to listen
▶ 0:00 / 0:37
Next up in the Interconnectedness Tour:

BOWL WITH A FANTASTICAL ELEPHANT-HEADED CREATURE
Accession Number: AH0554
Place: Iran
Dimensions: 15.2 cm
Date: early 10th century
Materials and Technique: stoneware, lustre-painted
This object is included in the following tour(s):
Step #3 of Audio Guide: Achievements
Click below to listen
▶ 0:00 / 4:36
Next up in the Achievement Tour:

Audio Guide: Creativity

Discover how artists pioneered new ideas and techniques through this tour that highlights the impact of these creative contributions on the Islamic world and beyond.

Audio Guide: Interconnectedness

Explore objects representing moments of interconnectedness among different parts of the Islamic world.

Audio Guide: Achievements

Take a closer look at a selection of artworks that shed light on the contributions of Muslim civilizations to world cultural heritage.

IMMERSE YOURSELF

Experience 3-D

Explore the eye-catching beauty of the Aga Khan Museum with virtual tours of our indoor and outdoor spaces.

VIRTUAL LIBRARY

Curator's Pick

The Aga Khan Museum's very own curators walk you through how to read an artifact from the Collection.

Peer Perspectives

Delve deeper into the fascinating history and wondrous stories of the artifacts in the Museum Collections.

Public Curates

Explore personal stories from members of the community as they discuss artifacts from the Collections and what they mean to them.

Lectures and Talks

Uncover fascinating lectures and talks that take a closer look at the Muslim world – from Alhambra and its gardens to the Qur'an in the 21st century and everything in-between.

SCHOOLS AND TEACHERS

Customized learning experiences for school groups offer many options, such as gallery tours

Photo By: Connie Tsang

Virtual Tours

Teachers and students are welcome to join our school programs, in-person or online, where they will explore the Aga Khan Museum. Students will be led through creative programs where they critically engage with objects in the Collections and discuss different cultures, history, and art. The Aga Khan Museum continuously collaborates with schools to create a positive impact on incoming students and cultivate an inclusive learning environment. Book Your Visit Now.

Teacher's PD

Join the Museum's Education email list by sending us your name and email address to be among the first to receive our programming updates. To sign up, arrange Teacher PD events, outreach, or custom school programming, please contact the Education team at learn@agakanmuseum.org. We look forward to welcoming you!

FAMILY ENGAGEMENTS

Family Activities

The Museum offers different ways for families to engage with our Collections both digitally and through arts and crafts activities.

Family Activities

Play and Learn

Digital Trails

Virtual Camps

To access the latest program for our virtual camp, please visit our website or send us an email at learn@agakhanmuseum.org. We are constantly updating our programs to provide the best experience for our campers.

For more information, please visit our website:
agakhanmuseum.org

